

Company Leave Policy Handbook

This handbook defines the official leave policies of the company and applies to all employees across departments including Engineering, Product, and Data Science. The policies are tiered according to employee seniority (Junior, Mid-level, Senior) and are designed to support employee well-being while ensuring operational continuity.

Effective Date: January 1, 2025

Document Classification: Internal HR Policy Document

1. Employee Classification Framework

Employees are categorized based on role complexity, years of experience, decision-making authority, and organizational impact. These classifications determine leave entitlements, approval authority, and eligibility for extended benefits.

1.1 Junior Employees

Junior employees are early-career professionals typically within their first two years of employment. They operate under close supervision and focus on skill acquisition and task execution.

1.2 Mid-level Employees

Mid-level employees possess significant domain knowledge, work independently, and often mentor junior staff. They may own projects or functional deliverables.

1.3 Senior Employees

Senior employees are strategic contributors with leadership responsibilities. They influence decision-making, own business outcomes, and represent the company externally.

2. Annual Leave Policy

Annual leave provides employees with paid time off for rest, recreation, and personal matters. Leave balances accrue monthly and reset annually, subject to carry-forward rules.

Level	Annual Entitlement	Monthly Accrual	Carry Forward	Max Balance
Junior	18 days	1.5 days	5 days	23 days
Mid-level	22 days	1.83 days	7 days	29 days
Senior	28 days	2.33 days	10 days	38 days

Annual leave must be planned in advance whenever possible. Employees are encouraged to distribute leave evenly throughout the year to prevent burnout and ensure team availability.

3. Sick Leave and Medical Absence

Sick leave is intended to support employee health and recovery. Employees should not attend work while unwell, especially in contagious situations.

- 1 Junior Employees: 10 paid sick days per calendar year.
- 2 Mid-level Employees: 12 paid sick days per calendar year.
- 3 Senior Employees: 15 paid sick days per calendar year.

Medical certificates are mandatory for absences exceeding two consecutive working days. Extended illness may qualify for medical leave or disability accommodation.

4. Family, Parental, and Compassionate Leave

The company recognizes the importance of family responsibilities and offers generous parental and compassionate leave policies.

4.1 Maternity Leave

Eligible employees are entitled to up to 20 weeks of fully paid maternity leave. This may be combined with accrued annual leave.

4.2 Paternity Leave

Paternity leave of up to 4 weeks paid is available to all employee levels following the birth or adoption of a child.

4.3 Compassionate Leave

Up to 7 days of paid leave may be granted in the event of the death or serious illness of an immediate family member.

5. Study Leave, Unpaid Leave, and Sabbaticals

5.1 Study and Professional Development Leave

Study leave supports continuous learning and professional growth. Approval is contingent upon relevance to the employee's role.

- 1 Junior: up to 5 paid days per year
- 2 Mid-level: up to 7 paid days per year
- 3 Senior: up to 10 paid days per year

5.2 Unpaid Leave

Unpaid leave may be approved after exhaustion of paid leave balances. Such leave does not accrue benefits and may impact bonus eligibility.

5.3 Sabbatical Leave (Senior Employees Only)

Senior employees with more than five years of service may apply for sabbatical leave ranging from one to three months for research, rest, or personal development.

6. Leave Governance, Compliance, and Amendments

All leave requests must be submitted through the official HR system. Falsification of leave records may result in disciplinary action.

The company reserves the right to amend this policy at any time to comply with legal requirements or operational needs. Employees will be notified of material changes.

This document is confidential and intended for internal use only.